SCRAMBLED EGG THEATRE COMPANY A MAN OF NO IMPORTANCE

Norman – a man of no importance – works as a cleaner at MI6, the headquarters of British Intelligence. He dreams of becoming a secret agent like James Bond. At work he is ignored and mistreated by colleagues other than the beautiful young female secretary who regularly flirts with him.

A strange series of events causes him to discover a secret plot to bomb a large building in London. A mysterious ‘man-in-black’ chases Norman through London’s streets and underground system in order to silence him before the plot is revealed. Norman discovers the target building is MI6 and the ‘man-in-black’ is the Head of British Intelligence.

At last, he becomes truly heroic by defeating the treacherous Head of British Intelligence and preventing mass murder. Norman’s heroism is never publically recognised and he remains a man of no importance - until the beautiful secretary visits late at night. The good guy always gets the girl in the end.
